What is your working relationship with the person/ team you are nominating?

All nominees must consistently demonstrate the Cornell University “Skills for Success” and FCS’s values of Truth, Respect, Excellence, Teamwork and Integrity.

Please check the box(es) below for the award(s) you are nominating this person/team for.
If you are unsure, the committee will designate all awards that apply.

- Keystone Award – This award is the highest honor. Excellence in service to the organization and consistent quality output in work activities. Awarded to an individual/team who exemplifies excellence and many of the qualities listed in the Cornerstone Awards.
- Cornerstone Award: Campus or Community Service – Volunteerism efforts either external or internal to Cornell University.
- Cornerstone Award: Dedication to Developing Others – Commitment to mentoring others and contributing towards the goal of succession planning.
- Cornerstone Award: Distinction in Teamwork – Had a positive impact on a team by giving distinguished service, making a difference, or implementing a quality of work/life improvement.
- Cornerstone Award: Effectiveness Improvement – Implemented an innovative process improvement that had a significant cost and/or time savings benefit to the organization.
- Steve Wright Bridge Award – Demonstration of significant, ongoing commitment to fostering diversity and inclusion.
- FCS “One Cornell” Award – An FCS team or employee who effectively worked across units, cultures, and other boundaries to positively impact one of our campus partners and/or Cornell as a whole.
- FCS Campus Partner “One Cornell” Award – For a campus partner who effectively worked across units, cultures and other boundaries to positively impact Facilities and Campus Services.
