May 2018
Helen works as a custodian at West Campus surrounded by students; she adds patience, kindness and charm to the workplace. As stewards of the University, we are entrusted with caring for the facility, grounds, and most importantly our students. Helen reflects FCS values each day through her caring demeanor and constant vigilance over the student’s wellbeing. Recently the students in her area gave her a card showing just how much they appreciate, admire and respect her.

Comments such as:
You make Becker feel more like home
Seeing you always makes me happy
Thank you for always being nice and dedicated
It is always a pleasure to see your smiling face
You are an important part of our family

Although there are many actions that contribute to the success of our FCS Mission, none are more important than looking out for the welfare of the students entrusted to Cornell University. The card it is evident that Helen makes a significant difference in the lives of these students every day through her caring and cheerful disposition. Helen makes a positive difference, and is valued by her manager, co-workers and most importantly, our students.

Helen’s actions each day strengthen the relationship between staff and students and is a positive reflection on FCS and the entire University.

Congratulations Helen!
