VP Whang, Sue Drew, Mike Swartwout

November Employee of the Month

Winner: Susan Drew

Nominator: Mike Swartwout

Susan provides a great example of a person who demonstrates all of our organizational values. Truth - Susan does what she says she will do. She admits when she does not know an answer. Respect - Susan treats everyone with a great deal of respect. She cares genuinely for her family and her colleagues. Excellence - Susan's work is always of the highest quality. You can be sure that she has checked her deliverables numerous times. Integrity - Is one of the first words that comes to my mind if you asked me to describe Susan. Susan has been a CU employee for 29 years and still has great energy and enthusiasm towards her work.

Since Susan moved back to Humphrey's this past summer, I have had the pleasure of working with her again on the Johnson Art Museum Project and now the Olin Library Fire Safety Improvements Project. I was quickly reminded of how competent and trustworthy she is. She takes an ever growing task list and systematically completes all that she promises and then some. Though Susan is working on additional projects as well she can always be counted on to keep our project records straight, meetings scheduled and our clients satisfied.

Susan consistently puts the needs of others before her own both at work and outside of work. Susan will be here working until 7 or 8 o'clock in the evening, and return the next day with a platter of incredible baked goods and a smile on her face to share with all that care to. I have not met anyone that can pass up Susan's cooking.

Mike said, “I am very happy to have been given the opportunity to work with Susan over my years here at Cornell but I am even happier to have been given the opportunity to become friends with someone that I respect as much as I do Susan.”
