October Employee of the Month
Winner: Cindy Kemp
Nominator: Tom LiVigne

Cindy is an exemplary employee. She is professional, accommodating, flexible, intelligent and very knowledgeable with regard to Cornell’s real property assets. She has many responsibilities within the Real Estate Dept. and is a pleasure to have as a co-worker.

However, there was a special project which could not have been completed without her expertise and extra work. An emergency situation regarding the approval of a Federal grant involving the Geothermal project, being proposed by Cornell Utilities and an academic unit, needed timely special attention. With only a few hours notice, Cindy worked with Lanny Joyce and Shirley Egan to gather all of the required information to successfully submit the grant. She stayed several hours beyond quitting time to help research the correct files and property documents, and assisted University Counsel in finding all of the pertinent information. This is typical of her work ethic.

In an email thanking Cindy, Lanny Joyce said, “We could not have done this response in such a ridiculously short-time without your dedication. Kudos and thanks.”
